The Pastor's Corner

As we pass into the month of November, we realize "the holidays" are hard upon us. My favorite is always Thanksgiving, being a New Englander at heart. As Diana Butler Bass says, "Thanksgiving serves to remind us of what we can celebrate together: food, the bounty of the earth, the gifts of life and work, the pleasure of relationships, the real unity of community, peace and interdependence and a call to serve others as we have been served. (A Beautiful Year)
UCCH has much to celebrate as a community, having just had three baptisms of consent and looking forward to receiving a handful of new members on Nov.15th. Please join with us in welcoming them. Thanks be to God, indeed!

Join us for a light luncheon in the Parlors as we celebrate this special occasion together. All are welcome to attend.
